MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

This “Memorandum of Understanding” (hereinafter referred to as the “MOU”) is made and entered into on the 22nd day of April, 2025 (hereinafter, referred to as the “EFFECTIVE DATE”).

BY & BETWEEN

The University of Delhi, Delhi, a premier central university, established under the Delhi University Act, 1922 (hereinafter referred to as “DU”) and represented by its Registrar, Dr. Vikas Gupta, as the First Party

AND

The Indian institute of Information Technology Senapati, Manipur (hereinafter referred to as “IITM”), established by Act of Parliament in 2017, represented by its Director, Prof. Krishnan Baskar, as the Second Party.

Individually, the two institutions shall be referred to as a ‘Party’ and jointly as ‘Parties’.

Parties agree to the following:

1. The two institutions will encourage direct contact and co-operation between their faculty and administrative staff, departments and research Laboratories/Centers/Cells.
2. Within fields that are mutually acceptable, the following general forms of co-operation will be pursued:
 - a) Visits by and exchange of faculty members, research scholars, and students.
 - b) Joint research activities and joint supervision of research work.
 - c) Joint conferences or symposia on subjects of mutual interest.
 - d) Joint educational outreach activities.

- e) Semester exchanges and internship opportunities for the students of the undergraduate programme with prior approval of the competent authorities of the respective Parties.
3. It is agreed that the terms and conditions of any agreed programme and activity contemplated in this MoU shall be the subject matter of separate written agreements to be negotiated and agreed upon by both Parties. Involvement of any third party in such activity shall be done by mutual consent of the Parties in writing. The decision whether to initiate and/or implement any programme or activity shall be by the mutual consent of the Parties.
 4. This MoU is not intended to create binding or legal obligations on either party. It merely expresses the intentions and understanding of the Parties which will form the basis of any legally binding agreement to be drafted and executed in the future.
 5. It is intended that Specific Agreements shall be entered into for various collaborative activities contemplated in this MoU.
 6. Both parties understand that all financial arrangements will have to be negotiated and will depend on the availability of funds.
 7. The Parties agree and undertake to keep confidential at all times any information or data that may be exchanged, acquired or shared in connection with any programme or activity conducted pursuant to this MoU. Digital personal data shall be maintained as per the Digital Personal Data Protection Act 2023. The confidentiality clause shall not apply to those data which are already available in public domain.
 8. Any Intellectual Property Rights generated through joint research or academic collaboration will jointly be owned by both the parties.
 9. Nothing in this Memorandum of Understanding grants to either party any right or license to use the other party's name, logos, or other trademarks, except in a mutually-agreed fashion.
 10. The MoU is initially valid for a period of three years. If there is a satisfactory progress in the work envisaged here, the MoU may be renewed for a similar period. It may be terminated at any time by mutual consent of parties or by giving three (3) months prior written notice by either party.
 11. The on-going collaborative academic activities may be completed, to the extent possible, despite termination. In case of any dispute or differences, the parties undertake to resolve such issue amicably by mutual agreement without any reference to a third party.
